

10. MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK (MSW)

- Group - A
50 Marks
- i) HUMAN SOCIETY: Meaning, nature and characteristics, Types of society - tribal, rural and urban, Individual and Society, Theories of Origin of society.
 - ii) SOCIAL GROUPS : Meaning, types and characteristics.
 - iii) SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS: Marriage, Family, Kinship, Economic Institutions, Educational Institutions, Political Institutions and Religious Institutions, Caste and Class.
 - iv) SOCIAL PROBLEMS: Problems related to: Women, Children, Youth, Old-aged, Physically and Mentally Handicapped - Crime and Delinquency - Deviance and Control; Correctional Services, Social Welfare - Tribal, Backward Class and other Weaker Sections.
- Group - B
50 Marks
- v) SOCIAL WORK: Historical and Philosophical origins of Social Work - Philanthropy and Charity: meaning, definitions, nature scope and importance of social work profession, Methods of Social Work - Case Work, Group work and Community Organizations; Fields of Social Work - Child Welfare, Women welfare, Youth welfare, Welfare of Physically Disabled, Mentally Retarded, Destitutes, Orphans and Old age people, Welfare of Weaker sections - S.C., S.T., B.D.s and Minorities : Need and importance of Voluntary Organization in developing and underdeveloped countries. Social Security Services - Legal and Constitutional Provision of disadvantaged Sections.

MODEL QUESTION PAPER

Time : 90 Minutes

Max. Marks : 100

The question paper consists of 100 questions in multiple choice covering the entire syllabus.

1. It is not a method of social work practice
- a) Case work
 - b) Group work
 - c) Social welfare administration
 - d) Sociology

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK (MSW) : Any graduate including professional courses like medicine, engineering, law, pharmacy, management, information technology with 40% marks at qualifying examination (for SC/ST students pass marks) are eligible to apply for the MSW (Master of Social Work) Course. A minimum of 36 marks should be obtained in Entrance Test as eligibility for admission. But there is no minimum marks for SC and ST candidates.

Chairman
Chairman
Board of Studies
Dept. of Social Work
Kakatiya University, Warangal